All builders shall be exempt from paying annual assessments on any Lot in which they intend to construct a single family home for sale to a third-party buyer; however, such builder exemption shall expire upon the earlier to occur of (i) the sale of such Lot to a third-party buyer, or (ii) two (2) years from the builder's purchase of such Lot, at which time assessments shall commence to accrue upon such Lot (and become due and payable).

Section 6. Effect of Nonpayment of Assessments; Remedies of the Association. Subject to the provisions of the North Carolina Planned Community Act, any assessment not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date shall be delinquent, in default and shall bear interest from the date in which said assessment became delinquent at the rate of one and half percent (1.5%) per month (or, 18% per year) (subject to a higher or lower rate of interest, as may be subsequently approved by the Association, and in accordance with applicable laws). In addition to charging interest on any delinquent assessment, the Association may impose the maximum fee for late payment of assessments, as allowed by the North Carolina Planned Community Act. The Association may bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same for the amount of the delinquent assessment (plus interest, costs, late payment charges, and reasonable attorneys' fees), or the Association may foreclose the lien against the Lot. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of any Common Property or abandonment of his/her Lot.

The lien herein granted unto the Association shall be enforceable from and after the time of recording a claim of lien in the Office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Sampson County, which claim shall state the description of the Lot encumbered thereby, the name of the record owner, the amount due and the date when due. The claim of lien may be filed by the Association any time after thirty (30) days after the due date of the assessment (or any installment thereof), and the lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by said lien as herein provided shall have been paid in full. Any such claim of lien shall include all assessments which are due and payable when the claim of lien is filed (plus interest, costs, late payment charges, and reasonable attorneys' fees). Such claims of lien shall be signed by an officer or agent of the Association. Upon full payment of all sums secured by such claim of lien, the claim of lien shall be cancelled of record by the Association with the Office of the Clerk of Superior Court.

(g) upon the termination of the Period of Declarant Control, the Association shall be authorized, and is hereby fully empowered by the Declarant and this Declaration, to mow, cut and clean any Lot, in the event the Lot is not properly maintained, and charge the Lot owner for these services, and said charge shall be a lien against the Lot.

Section 2. Information. The Association shall make available to all Owners (and their mortgage lenders, upon request), a current copy of this Declaration, any amendments to this Declaration, a current copy of the Bylaws of the Associations (and any amendments thereto), any published rules and regulations of the Association (if any), as well as the books, records and financial statements of the Association.
